By Road
From the M25

Turn off M25 at Junction 3 following signs for London A20. Leave the A20 at the Bexley (A233) and Orpington/Footscray (A224) exit (Critalls Corner). At the roundabout at the end of the slip-road, take the third exit into the A224, Cray Road. At the junction with the A211 turn left onto Sidcup Hill, heading towards Sidcup. Continue for a further 1/2 mile into Sidcup where you will find Kingswood House situated on the right hand side (just before Rectory Lane).

From London

Leave London via the A20 heading towards the South East, following signs for Folkestone. Leave the A20 at the Bexley (A233) and Orpington/Footscray (A224) exit (Critalls Corner). At the roundabout at the end of the slip-road, take the first exit into the A224, Cray Road. At the junction with the A211 turn left onto Sidcup Hill, heading towards Sidcup. Continue for a further 1/2 mile into Sidcup where you will find Kingswood House situated on the right hand side (just before Rectory Lane).

By Public Transport

The nearest station to Kingswood House is Sidcup. Sidcup station is served by the Charing Cross, Waterloo East & London Bridge Southeast line services.

We are a short walk from the station. Follow the A222 Station Road into Sidcup, at the traffic lights junction with the A211 turn left onto Sidcup High Street. Continue to just after the fifth turning on the left (Rectory Lane), where you will find Kingswood House situated on the left hand side.

Car Parking

There is plenty of free parking available in Durham Road, Lincoln Road and Sussex Road which are located opposite the college.
